

THE END OF PLASTIC AS WE KNOW IT

EMPOWERING NEW ZEALAND BUSINESSES & ACTING ON PLASTIC

- PROGRAMME -

MONDAY AUGUST 26

TIME	SESSION	SPEAKER
7.15	AOTEA SQUARE, CBD - WALKING OUT Start your day by joining us for an invigorating walk from Aotea Square to ASB Waterfront Theatre, experiencing the rhythms of the waking city while taking part in an early morning citizen science project.
8.30	ASB WATERFRONT THEATRE - WELCOME Mihi Whakataau Registration and Coffee
9.10	OPENING SESSION MC Opening A Word from the Minister A Big Shift in Plastics Eat Less Plastic: Stories from a Pacific Adventure	Andy Kenworthy Hon. Eugenie Sage, Minister of Conservation Rachel Brown, CEO SBN Phil Somerville, Actor/Sailor/ Philanthropist
10.35	MORNING TEA
10.55	Eliminate-Innovate-Circulate: A Roadmap for Today	Barbara Nebel, thinkstep Australasia
11.20	STREAM A: ELIMINATE! A Paradigm Shift: Tossing Single Use Reprogramming Consumers: The Non-Plastic Purchase Model Shift: Committing to Plastic Free Design	Nada Piatek, Again Again Brienne West, Ethique David Trubridge
	OR
11.20	STREAM B: GRIDAKL - BREAKOUT SESSION Radically Redesign Plastic for your Business: Join Louise Nash from Circularity to explore practical circular solutions that work for you, your customers and the planet.
12.50	LUNCH
13.50	STREAM A: INNOVATE! Rethinking Plastics in Aotearoa New Zealand: Preliminary Findings from the Report Speaker: Juliet Gerrard, Prime Minister's Chief Science Advisor

From Plants to Plastic: A Beautiful Redesign
Plastic Possibilities: The Three Pillars
Panel Discussion

Monique Kelly, Revology
Florian Graichen, Scion

OR

13.50 STREAM B: GRIDAKL - BREAKOUT SESSION

Getting Your Story Right: Marketing expert Kath Dewar from GoodSense takes you through the essentials of effectively communicating your work on plastics and packaging to the world.

15.20 AFTERNOON TEA

15.40 STREAM A: CIRCULATE!

Social and Environmental Circularity: Guided by Good
A Volatile Market: What Can We Count On?
Tackling the Packaging: Circular Steps
Panel Discussion

Rui Peng, Critical
Peter Thorn, Reclaim
Kelly McClean, Foodstuffs

OR

15.40 STREAM B: GRIDAKL - BREAKOUT SESSION

Cradle to Cradle®: Barbara Nebel, Managing Director of thinkstep Australasia introduces you to the design and innovation concept based on the infinite use of materials. At the end of this workshop, rejoin us in the ASB Waterfront Theatre for the closing session.

17.10 CLOSING SESSION

Circling Back on Plastics: How to Best Move Forward

Rachel Brown, SBN

17.30 NETWORKING DRINKS

Programme subject to change.

OCEAN PLASTICS FIELD TRIP

TUESDAY AUGUST 27

8.45-12.30

Jump aboard the Auckland Whale & Dolphin Safari boat and take a deep dive into ocean plastics out on the waters of the Hauraki Gulf. Morning tea included.

GulfX: Tackling Plastic Pollution in the Hauraki Gulf

Phil Jones, SBN

See for Yourself: Microplastics Through the Microscope

The Crew, Auckland Whale & Dolphin Safari

An Ocean of Plastic: A Global Perspective

Camden Howitt, Sustainable Coastlines

Microplastics in Our Foodchain

Devina Shetty, Institute of Marine Science, The University of Auckland

Auckland
Tourism, Events and Economic Development
An Auckland Council Organisation

Ministry for Primary Industries
Manatū Ahu Matua

thinkstep
ANZ

kōkako

YEALANDS
ESTATE WINES
HALLERTAU — NEW ZEALAND

